For some of us this is our last year, for others it's only our first. But no matter where we are in high school or in life itself, we are constantly observing things. Whether its people, places, things or habits, we all have different focuses. Different things drive each of us and spark our interests. So now it's time to disect some of our activities here at WHS, and think about what makes us tick. We want to focus in on the various people that make up Westboro High. What's unique about groups and individuals here creates a very ecclectic, interesting, and exciting environment. While we were tempted to focus soley on the senior class of 2002, we didn't in this year's book for two reasons: one- because underclassmen wouldn't buy the book, and two- the staff recognizes that seniors do not make up the whole school. We are only a fourth of the school and since we were there once too, it's important to recognize all students. So let's acknowledge everyone's strengths, and focus in on all of our many goals, accomplishments, and concentrations.

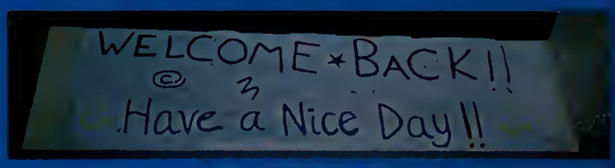
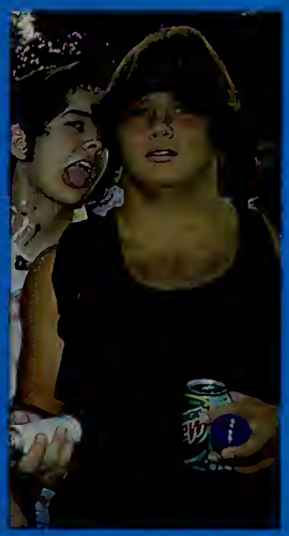
Coming in to focus



Top Right: The Spirit Squad is here! (Jen Mongeau, Courtney Slade, Lauren and Liz Eldridge, Lin Lin Gao, Joanna Levitt, and Melissa Cheney). Top Left: Angela Prout and Bonnie Blake. Dude, where's my car? Center: Courtney O'Regan and Jenny Callahan show their senior love! Bottom Right: Allie Bahn, Bonnie Blake, Nora Colonero, Anne Hurley, and Kate DeWitt are all ready to rumble. Bottom Left: Is Sara Ledbetter really that tan? But then again is Amanda Rice really that pale?



Before we knew it, our day had arrived-we were finally seniors. After 3 years of waiting the time had come to dress in our coveted tyedyes and storm the school. The day started off early at Bodyshaper's parking lot, as we decorated our cars for their entrance to WHS. After causing a traffic jam around the rotary, we arrived at school ready to rumble. The faculty had anticipated us and prepared a large holding pen (simliar to those at cattle ranches) to contain us. After what seemed like hours caged in, they finally let us out! We entered an abandoned lobby, and proceeded down to the cafeteria for a "free" breakfast. Even though they tried to rain on our parade, the senior sun shone brightly as we established our own reign over the entire school!

We're all Wet & Colorful!

At the end of a very long relaxing summer the class of 2002 decided to kick off the year by continuing the long standing senior tradition of the tye dye pool party. After tossing and turning over the time, date, and place, we finally sent out invitations for an afternoon of fun in the sun on September 1st at Jarrod O'Donnell's house. After making some very last minute trips to Wal-mart and phone calls to devoted class members, everything started to pull together. All our worries about the party disappeared when the class showed up ready to tye-dye and unify. Lots of nice clothes got soaked and some brand new t-shirts were stained. We said good bye to summer, started to enjoy ourselves as a class, and prepared for our reign as seniors.

What Really Happens...

It was an evening to remember. All the waiting, the dreaming, and finally the perfect night. Yeah right! It starts out with a rush to the hair dressers at exactly 2:02. As the boys hustle to get their hair and makeup done the girls are busy getting their tuxedos ready. Wait, strike that, reverse it.

Everyone completes their final alterations and finishing touches to get ready as the parents, grandparents, uncles, aunts, cousins, neighbors, co-workers, long lost half cousins twice removed, and even the pets pile into the cars to a friend's house for what seems to be hundreds of pictures.

Then after the Prom, the aftermath as it is so tentatively called, is full of twister, board games, spin the..., wait no. It was a time to finally take off the shoes which seemed to be permanently attached to one's feet, put on pajamas, and spend hours taking each other's hair down. Then after all that excitement, bodies would clutter the houses as parents would wonder what kind of night could ever make their darling children so tired. And the truth is...they will never know.

-Cathy Kaminski 02'

Top right: Morning already? Kate Dolan tries to hide.

On a bright and cheery May day, class of 2002 students determined that they needed a break from the demanding school year. They "spontaneously" decided to "get outta here," heading out to pools, restaurants, and amusment parks for a little bit of R & R. Six Flags and Jen Nario's house were some of the places to be for our fun filled day.

A Friendly Way to Start Our Day

There is a reason why hours before the rest of WHS would wake up and start their morning rituals, the twenty-one yearbook staff members were already awake and engaging in a delicious breakfast at Friendly's. We were BONDING! The yearbook staff had better bond... the alternative - CHAOS. Think I'm kidding? It's lost pictures, "I don't care", lost copy, "Who Me?" Lost opportunities, "Nobody told me!", lost leadership, You name it editor. Anyway you can see the need for sitting down to the the smell of bacon and french toast. The road ahead would be fraught with deadline demons and bleary-eyed editors, but we chugged down multiple cups of hot chocolate and coffee to give us energy for the perilous journey ahead. Ah yes, yearbook bonding at its finest., Yearbook Bonding to get us through the year, Yearbook Bonding ..... And all this happened before you even reached over to hit your snooze button.

-Rachel Schneider ' 02

Ventures through Europe:

Last April over one hundred of Westboro's finest musicians set out for a musical tour of Europe. The jazz band, orchestra, and concert choir traveled to the Czech Republic, Austria, and Hungary. We performed in the oldest cathedrals in Budapest, the largest cathedral in Vienna, and the most famous cathedrals is Prague. We visited palaces, musems, different cities, and ate at local restaurants, getting a taste of many different cultures. We enjoyed performing in beautiful venues, and experiencing the three cities to thier fullest. From shady locals, to shopping in the markets, long bus rides, money belts, tour guides, and swapping roomates to broken suitcases and instuments, we'll always remember our tour of Europe.

Paradise in the South of France

On July 8, 2001 fourteen students along with two chaperones embarked on the trip of a lifetime. We had no idea what to expect. We only knew that we were going to be in Nice, France for three weeks, all staying with different families. Nothing could have prepared us for the fun we had and the memories we made.

Blue skies, beautiful palm trees, and crystal clear waters of the Mediterranean, layed before us as we started our journey of the French culture.

Et oh mon dieu les chose qui nous avons experience...

No Longer in our Land

On June 13, 2001 we left on a long journey to experience Ireland and England. When we first landed in Ireland, no one knew what to expect. Though it was cold and wet, we all tried to not let that dampen our spirits. We were away from our parents for ten days, and we were going to make the best of it no matter what.

The most fun on this whole trip was when we reached London, England and got to see the Queen and her "posse" of carriages and guards.

With the group, we all got to experience all the sights that Ireland and England had to offer. All the wonderful things that we were able to see in ten days will certainly surpass that of any other trip!

Homecoming 2001: "Back In The Day" proved to be an even grander success than the prior year's, which had reinitiated the Homecoming tradition to WHS. The week opened with a Fun Run on Sunday September 30. Spirit Week was a great time with toys and even a horse drawn carraige on Wild West Thursday. By the time Saturday rolled around excitement was in the air. That morning featured the parade and festival. The football team fought hard against St. John's. The incredible week was nicely concluded by an awesome dance and crazy costumes that evening.

"After a fun day at the game and the pre-game festivities, everyone was excited to get together and have a good time at the dance. We may have lost the game against St. John's but we didn't let it ruin our fun later in the evening. After much controversy about the amount of tickets sold, there was still a surprisingly huge turnout. What was even more surprising was how spirited everyone was with their 'Back in the day' outfits. Homecoming was a great time, and those that didn't go missed out on one of the best dances of the year."

Dear Class of 2002

With eight different class officers and two different advisers over four years, it has been quite an experience. What's made it even more of an experience has been that all ten of those people have been wonderful to work with. They have done a great service to our class.

Being president of the class of 2002 has been somewhat of a rollercoster ride. One day you are being loudly applauded after a speech, or congratulated after a successful fundraiser. Only a few days later you are standing in front of an angry pre-skip day lynch mob, trying to pretend you don't hear Joe Black yelling "Impeach him", mixed with inappropriate South Park lines.

Through everything that has happened in these four years, I've truly learned to appreciate the character of our class. From the tye-dye party onward, I knew that it was going to be a fun year, and it was. Without question, you have all set a great example this year. There is no other group of people that I would rather have spent these years trying to keep happy. The memories I have as a result of the people in this class are priceless. I wish you all the best in whatever you do. Thanks guys, it's been fun.

Sincerely,
Brian Parise '02

All Work and No Play...

"I'll never forget the summer I gained a hundred pounds-it was my first summer working at Uhlman's Ice Cream. From my brilliantly glitterized tip cup and ice cream stained tee shirts to the super human strength that developed in my fright arm (Scooper-itis) it was a work experience like no other. I had no idea that summer night could be so busy that at times two police officers would be necessary to direct the seemingly endless line of cars packed with all craving one thing-the one in a kind, great tasting, Uhlman's ice cream. Remember Lou and Emily we need flavors up the ying-yang-this place is hoppin'."

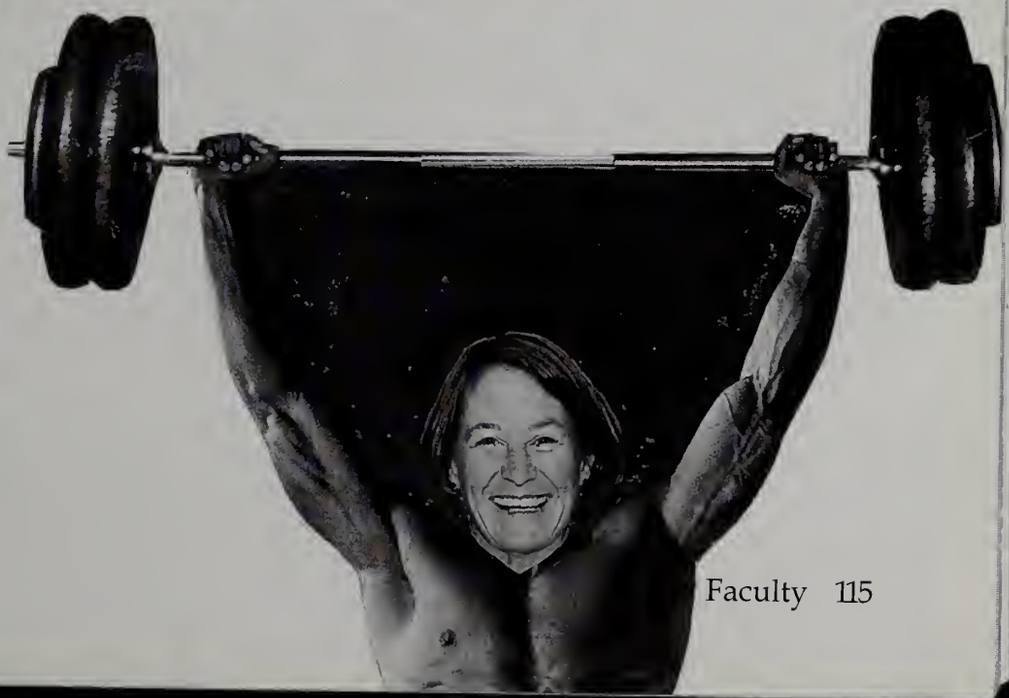
Introduction by Mary E. Hi



Our Fearless Leaders...

My very best wishes to the class of 2002. Please know how much we appreciate the extraordinary patience, cooperation, and good faith that you have provided in a year of enormous change. Your class is one of the finest I have ever known; we will miss each of you. May your lives ahead be healthy, happy, and truly rich in both meaning and satisfaction.

Mr. Pierce

What an amazing year this has been. I congratulate all of you. Let the experiences you have had at Westborough High School be a springboard for the rest of your lives. Believe in yourselves, aim high and continue to make us proud.

Aloha, Hawaii!

"Mr. LaDuke was a great coach. He kept us motivated and encouraged us to do all we could do."

Dan Bready '02

"Sports, in general, are fun. But what really makes a season stand out, is the coach. Coach LaDuke made my basketball seasons here at the high school outstanding. Thanks!"

-Phil Aurigemma '02

"Mr. LaDuke has a fantastic sense of humor. He will be sorely missed by all who knew him."

-Greg Rota

"I really enjoyed Mr. Scenna's Trig and Analytic class. He found ways to make Math fun! I'm so thankful for all the days he stayed afterschool to explain all those complicated, not to mention, impossible topics. He was one of the most helpful teachers I've ever had and he will forever be remembered as "the best of the best"!"

-Jennifer Nario '02

"Mr. Scenna is a legendary teacher. He took our class to an unbelievable level. He made sure everyone understood what he was teaching. He wouldn't have it any other way. We all miss his laugh, his sarcasm, but above all his superior teaching. He will always be the teacher that changed our lives."

-Justin Sharifipour '02

"Mr. Scenna was everyone's favorite math teacher. He conducted his class in a way that was challenging yet not impossible. For many, Mr. Scenna's trig class was the first time they had ever received an A in math. He had a way of making students realize their potential. Mr.Scenna is already greatly missed."

-Katie Swiderski '02

"Mr. Mullen is an interesting teacher, who is full of great stories."

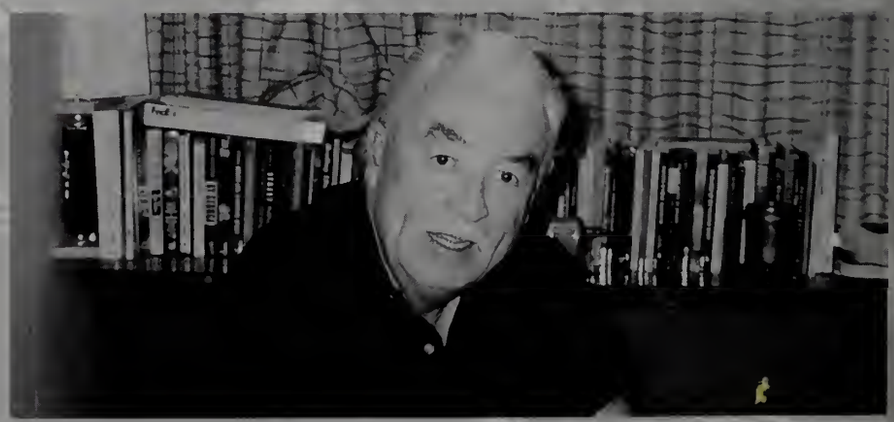
-Lindsay Becker '05

"Mr. Mullen is a good guy. You just got to get to know him."

-Andy Thayer '02

"He made class interesting, not to mention entertaining."

-Tom Rock '02



"Ms. Ferrari was an excellent teacher. She never picked out favorites in class. If someone was having a problem, she'd help them through it. She cared about each and every one of us and it showed. She was a really great person."

Katie Kircher '02

"I liked Mrs. Ferrari a lot. She made English a lot of fun to go to."

-Brandon Cooper '02

"Mr. Kaplan is a super great person. I've had him for yearbook for three years. During that time I've had the opportunity to get to know him quite well. He's the sweetest man ever. He can tell if you're having a bad day and he'll do anything he can to make you happy. He has taught me so much. I'm glad I was able to have him for a teacher. Mr. Kaplan, thanks for all you've done."

Amanda Pokras '02

"Everytime he called me Jeff, I got a quarter. So far, I've made $5.75."

Pat "Jeff" Gillooly '02

"Mr. Kaplan is an unbelievable man and will be deeply missed. He is thoughtful and compassionate, always willing to help us out in any situation necessary. Mr. Kaplan has offered us endless advice and guidance both with yearbook and in life." Thank you for everything Mr. Kaplan, good luck!

Co-Editors Angela Prout 02' + Jess Parsons 02'

"Mr. Kaplan was a great teacher and a great role model. He made class both interesting and insightful. In doing so, he tried to dig out the best in everyone. I have learned so much from being in English and Yearbook with him. Teachers like that, you just never forget."

-Dani Martin '02

"Although I only had the privilege of having Mr. Fields for one year, I was still able to experience his steller personality and great wealth of knowledge. You knew walking into his class he meant business but you also knew that you would walk out smiling and laughing."

-Rachel Schneider '02

"Mr. Fields is mad cool."

-Jenny Callahan '02

"If teaching is an art, then Gene Fields is a virtuoso. I truly admire his skill and passion for shaping young minds."

-Michael Fontaine

We have some really strong underclassmen, especially some of the freshman who are really incedible, they may have started as inexperienced rookies, but they matured and improved. Go girls XC
~Lin Lin Gao

It has often been remarked that the cross country team is, in its basic essence, the "chess team at recess." The cross country captains of 2001, however, say nay to this misguided classification. Throughout the course of the fall season, the casual observe would often notice a procession of hairy-chested, stoic, unduly masculine men, which upon first glance provoked such starry-eyed comments as "that must be the X-C team."

Under the deft hand of new coach Mr. Hebert, we dealt with the crippling blows of lactic acid and reverse peristalsis, conditions of which a chess team, we are quite sure, would be largely ignorant. Although the team had to contend with its fair share of biotech conferences and math meets, we've remained a cohesive unit, managing to put together the best season in recent memory. As a testament to this, we, being the hulking assemblege that we were, muscled our way to an overall placing of second in the Mid-Wach B League, which is no small accomplishment.

As captains, we gaze upon the team and see nothing but the brightest of futures. As a parting word, we leave you with the famous quote by W.B. Mason: "You can take the chess player out of the cross country runner, but you can never take the cross country runner out of the chess player." Well said.

Sincerely,
X-C Captains Greg Kwasnik
Doug Moak
Joe Black
Dan Bonner

The 2001 field hockey season started with a sleepover that brought the team together like never before. This bond helped make the long practices and bus rides enjoyable. In the second half of the season a loss to Oakmont destroyed our hopes of being League Champs but it motivated us to be District Champs. The District Final was a thriller as we defeated Notre Dame 1-0, and advanced to the State Semis for the first in 11 years. There we defeated Mr. Big Stick and Mohawk Trail and advanced to the State Finals. It all ended on Leah Dudley's birthday as we lost in the State Championship to Walpole, 0-4. To some the season may have ended with a loss but to us it ended a success.

The 2001 football marked the coaching debut of Mark Ellis after longtime head coach Jan Gebo stepped down last season. The season started off slow, with the Rangers falling to tough non-league opponents such as St. Johns, St. Peter Marian, and Nashoba. An emotional loss to Holy Name hurt Westboro's playoff hopes, but the Rangers refusedto give up, winning the last three contests, including a lopsided victory over arch-rival Algonquin on Thanksgiving. The team overcame inauspicous weather conditions, injuries, slander in the newspaper, and a tough schedule and still managedto emerge as winners. The Seniors set an example of courage and mental toughness which filtered down to the rest of the players. Everyone came to play on each game-day and we emerged victorious or went down fighting. I personally am very proud o have been on a team that refused to give up and displayed heart and determination throughout the season.

I would also like to thank the senior mothers, cheerleaders, and marching band members for showing so much support for the team. The encouragement meant a lot to the players and got us through difficult times.

I'm sure the golf team had a great season and all went well. However I'm unable to provide you with those interesting golf facts to which you were all so looking forward. If you're wondering how their season went ask one of the captains, . Thanks for your time.

anyone gotta... ace?

This fall season 2001 was an incredible success. With no seniors everyone stepped up to meet and overcome the challenge. Only four players were returning from Varsity, but this didn't stop our team. Through much perserverance we triumphed to become Midwach A league runner-ups, and made it all the way to the District championships where we faced the league champions, Milford.

With only one home game, due to gym construction, it didn't damper on our team's spirit. We came together as a team and trampled each obstacle that was put in front of us.

Thankyou to all the coaches for everything, and most of all thanks to all the girls for an exciting season. Next year we hope to beat our record of 14-7 overall, see you next year.

To the 8 graduating seniors that had all been part of the team since sophomore year, this past season meant so much. Although we had a poor record, it in no way reflected our team, the effort we put into it or the spirit we were proud of. By the end of the season, we proved that records aren't everything: three players were league all stars. Our team has been through quite a bit and through all the tears, the arguments, and the injuries, we bonded and survived what it was that was holding us back. Good luck to next year's team, keep your heads high girls!

We had a great season this year. We started out with a brand new team since there was numerous seniors last year. It took a lot of hardwork and dedication to form our team. We came together however and it was evident in the effort put out by all of the guys. We kept the mentality that our season wasn't going to be a rebuilding year even with the loss of most of the team after last year. Thanks to Coach Allen, Coach Richards, the parents and the team as a whole. Good luck next year guys!

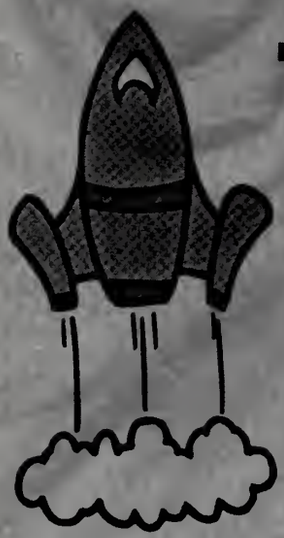
Rocket To The Sky



Rocket to the sky!
This year has been a bumpy road with lots of ups and downs; but in the end it's the ups we remember. We've been presented with many challenges that we never thought we would be able to overcome; yet we persevered. This was the first year cheerleading was recognizedas a sport. With a lot of hard work, we surpassed expectations. We went into competition as underdogs, and we walked out with our heads held high.

Never give up...Do it for the Nubbin!

We have increased the size of the team tremendously, and we are more than happy to welcome new members! Our record is very strong because of the hard work and dedication to the team and our love of gymnastics! We have all had fun trying routines, tye-dying, and cheering each other on. The 2001-2002 season was another great year of unparalleled fun and excitement. Piling into our faithful old gym for one last year, we ignored the cranky floorboards, the wilted banners, and hot drafts of air. It was from this gym, our home that we determined to be the best. Finding ourselves in a couple close games at the beginning, we suddenly uncovered our new secret weapon....the kangawoo dance. Suddenly propelled forward, we dodged our share of angry ref's, suffocating smells, and wayward cheerleaders, to come together when we needed to most. In the end, it was a season to remember. To our wonderful coaches, parents, and fans, we thank you for all your support. To the girls, it's been a blast from the beginning. Good luck next year! B4L & B4E, HUH!

Sincerely, the voice of Babylonia,

With the old man surpassing 400 wins, what better team to end with than this one. We've got "Rec Specs," and an "Afro", bringing the 70's and the 80's to the team. Before a game, you were likely to find McCabe and Slater with a comb in hand, Bud freestyle rapping, Quincy talking about how his dad can dunk from the three-point line, Van Dam and Bready looking for the nearest cheerleader's phone number, and Cellucci walking in 15 minutes late after meditating in the forest with mocassins on. With a great mixture of hard work, talent, and humor, we came out on top. Not to mention the fabulous coaching combo of ex-hippy Biladeau, and Great Gray Hair LaDuke. Not to mention the 30 year old Cellucci gets to suit up, what an edge!!!

Twenty-Four Guys, Two Girls, and a couple pucks

Under first year head coach, Mr. Belbin, the ice hockey team skated to its most successful season in the past four years. The team qualified for districts for the first time since the 1998-1999 season. This year's team was led by Senior Captain Jim Erickson, and Senior Alternate Captains Jarrod O'Donnell, Alan Lai, and Doug Mayne. The team has a very promising future with a very talented nucleus of juniors and sophomores. Between the 5:15 AM practices, team Munchies, and Koehler's personality and actions, the team enjoyed a very ammusing season.

The 2001-2002 Indoor Track season is one which will stick out in our minds for a long time. The boys picked up where they left off last year, crushing three teams in one meet. In addition to their fabulous record, they gained Coach Davis, who proved to be a "mini-Anderson". The hard work and determination of each and every guy resulted in their 2nd place finish in the League meet. On the girls side, after five long awaited years, Coach Anderson finally got what he wanted: a win. This wasn't just any old win, it was the best kind of win because it wasn't one, but it was TWO wins in one day. The girls shone brightly through out the whole season. And at the end, although Anderson kept his hair and Rachel's remained its natural color, we can confidently say we worked hard and had fun in doing so.

13 and 1, League Champs! This season was spent shaving seconds off best times, bonding, eating regattas on the bus, going to sectionals and states. It was a year of firsts. Freshman diving extraordinaire Lauri Leach (our 1st diver) won leagues and sectionals, going on to states. We also had an even split of 15 girls and 15 guys. Having more boys was a huge factor-we couldn't have done it without you guys. And for the first time someone beat Gardner at Leagues. Bethany prepared us well and put up with alot; thanks. Overall it was a winter full of broken records and realized dreams. Good luck in the future guys, always believe in yourselves and remember: whatever the challenge, whatever the need, you have what it takes, you will succeed. Thanks to you all for an awesome season.

Only with this group of girls could we have gotten through our season with no courts.

The whole team pulled together to make our season a worthwhile effort.

I am proud to have been the captain of this fabulous, intelligent, talented group of athletes.

We may not have had the "hometeam" advantage, but with much determination and strength we made it all the way to districts and made the Westborough Rangers Girls Tennis Team a household name!

We had a really young team this season, with only four seniors and juniors and a new coach. It was worth every minute, even though we ran a lot and played one of the longest games ever. With great captains and a lot of teamwork, we tried our best in each game, supporting each other through the bad calls and mistakes. Next year can only be bigger and better as we keep working hard and improving. We're coming back full force.

The 2001 boys baseball season proved to be truly the most successful season in school history. We tied the record of 16 wins in a regular season, set the previous year, won the Ashland Tournament for the third year in a row, and capped off the season with an exciting title run, which brought us to the state semifinals. The season got off to a rocky start because of the late winter precipitation carrying into the early weeks of the season. Playing outside for the first time in mid-April hurt the team early, causing us to lose 3 of the first five games. However, we put together an impressive string of victories winning ten in a row and finishing with a stellar 16-4 mark. The Rangers sent a message to Central Mass. with two early wins in the tournament, and then took it all with a victory against Milford in the District championship game.

The sound of the gun
Began the race
And everyone ran
Off
At a different pace
Discus were thrown
Polevaulters jumped
While the goal of the
Captains
Was to get everyone
Pumped
Our sprinters took off
With a great VROOM
The other team
Looked on hopeless
As they realized
Their doom
Teamates cheered
As coaches looked on
Everything was going
Well
Until we dropped the
Baton
But that didn't
Matter
We had already won
And at the end of the

We could say we had
Fun

Two Very Fine, Fine Arts People

"Ms. Perryman is such a wonderful person! She allows her students to explore their own ideas and to come up with their own interesting ways to express them. I enjoy working wit her in everything that I do with Centerstage and for my senior AP English Class. What a wonderful woman!"

~Tiffany Nicholson '02

"Ms. Perryman is probably the most intelligent woman I know. Being in one of her classes is a privilege because you learn so much just by being in her precence."

~Katie Swiderski '02

"I have been lucky enough to work with Ms. Perryman in a variety of ways. She's a one-of-a-kind Centerstage advisor, an incredible director, and an excellent teacher. The best thing about Ms. Perryman is that she teaches you how to learn instead of simply teaching you. She has a unique way of helping students find the answers instead of merely giving them away. I am so thankful that I have gotten to know Ms. Perryman and will always remember everything she's done for me."

~Jennifer Nario '02

Ms. Perryman

"I respect Mr. Jost because he demands a lot as a teacher; he has a lot of reponsibility as fine arts director, but he still keeps a sense of humor and doesn't take himself too seriously."

~ Brian Parise '02

"Mr. Jost brings a new life to students and he has no faults in his teaching. He is orginized and striyes for individual, as well as group excellence. Mr. Jost is a vital part of the Fine Arts Program, and I don't where we would be without him.

~ Justin Sharifipour '02

"Mr. Jost always finds the time to help a student. One day after school, he found out that I was having trouble with a history essay, and he used the rest of his afternoon helping me write the paper. His infinite patience and understanding have helped me throughout my years at Westborough High School."

Tri-M Chapter 3301

The Tri-M Music Honor Society is a fairly new group at the high school. This is only our second year, so we're still trying to get ourselves off the ground. Mostly, our aim is to help students do something with their musical skills. We encourage musical community service, which can be anything from singing Christmas carols at a nursing home, giving a younger student private lessons, or peforming in a concert whose proceeds benefit the American Cancer Society. We haven't done much as a group this year, but we hope to provide the chance for students to feel good about themselves and their abilities in the future. I think this program will be a lot of fun and a great opportunity for music students at WHS.

CENTERSTAGE

Since its start in 1987, Centerstage has put on a huge number of productions, yet this year it was faced with its biggest role...to proudly live on as the Nomadic Tribe of Wandering Drama People. As tribal leaders we all came together to seek out all the possible places that our productions could call home. We used the power of expensive lights to turn the band room into a stage suitable for Our Midsummer Night's Dreams and the One Acts. Throughout all the turmoil we were still able to continue the traditions and ideals that Centerstage represents. The tribe happily welcomed anyone interested in theater by creating opportunities for students to be on and off "stage". Centerstage prevailed through the hardships of this year by learning that some deadlines are never met. We're still Kicking and Screaming!

IMPROV TROUPE

Improv is fun!! Every Friday a bunch of us "no-good, can't read from a written script," "actors", try to come "together," to play some fun "games." We enjoy such games "as" party quirks, tv/film styles, rope "!" and scorpion.

Everybody enjoys getting together every week to have fun, laugh, and generally have what we assume to be a good time. This year we have seen such a huge "improv"ment in commitment, and we've tried to make the best with what we had. Just remember, never fight back against an animal rebellion, watch out for "are you gonna." and of course... carpe diem.

This year was the beginning of a new era. An era without Mr. P, an era filled with phrases such as "acapoco" and "from the edge." Though we were sad to see Mr. P go, we are so happy to have had the chance to work with Mr. Stillitano and the talented Mrs Quinn. Mr. Stillitano has been a fantastic teacher. This year our highlight was the winter concert with a tribute to the September 11th tragedy. We are extremely lucky to have such a kind and inspiring teacher. Thanks for the memories, and don't forget, "tip of the tongue at the back of the bottom of the teeth."

Madrigals

I dreaded my third year of madrigals. We lost nearly three-fourths of last year's group-all but 5 (out of 16) returning members. I feared the new group, especially without our beloved "P," would lack the same chemistry of past years. Yet together, under the talented and enthusiastic "Stills," we came together with chemistry and an amazing ability to communicate-essential to being able to perform Deck the Halls in 7/8 time. I'll miss men in tights and pitch pipes-Thanks for the memories.

Women's Chorale

Unlike most subjects that students complain about, chorus is fun. Chorus is undeniably fun. And without Mr. Still, it would hardly be such a "unique" experience. Stills has a lot of patience while he teaches us new and exciting music(like "Hold Fast Your Dreams") and even puts up with us goofing around, like the time we gave him the Fruitcake shirt for Christmas. In this class, we all had to record our voices on tape recorder(although we all wanted to revolt against it) and learnt about written music, as well as proper single techniques. Every morning we warm up by singing scales using different vowels and use hand signs to practice solfege pitches. Even though he expects the most from us during second period, when we're all practically asleep, I would like to thank Mr. Stillitano for making singing fun for all, as well as giving us a few laughs. -Amanda Mulhall '05

Mixed chorus this year was quite a learning experience. As a group, we learned how to function in a beautiful new classroom, how to develop our musical and "solfege" skills, how to improve our tone and sound, and most importantly, how to acclamate ourselves to our new director's teaching style. With a wide variety of repertoire and unexpected surprises during every class, mixed chorus was a time for us to become better singers and better group learners.

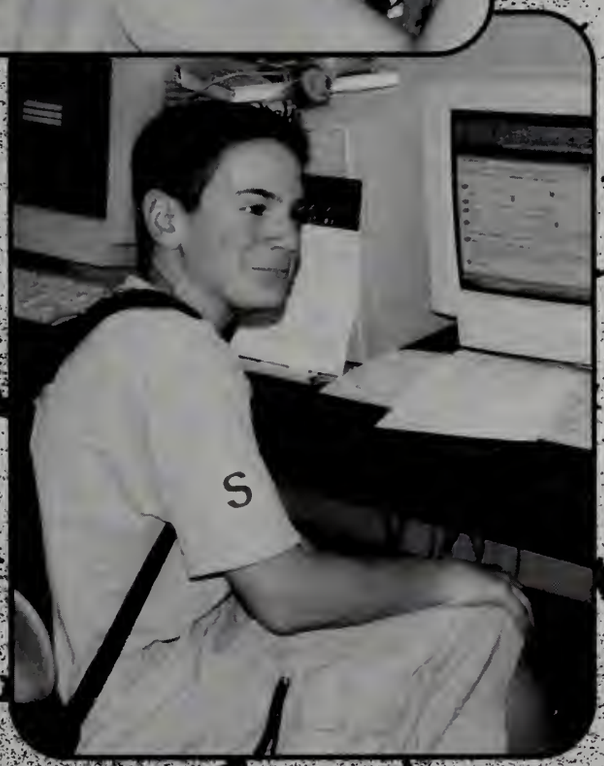
ACTIVITY

I E S



Kane's Krew

One of the main functions the Westborough High School Student Council has had in past years is to sell carnations for Valentine's Day. That task was pretty much our only task. This year was a huge change for all council members. Under the guide of new advisor, Mr. Kane the WHS Council went from being a small group to being named one of the Top 10 Councils in the state of Massachusetts for all their hard work and fabulous events. The council will only get bigger and better as the years go on. And...we're still a work in progress.

Leading the way...

The Peer Leaders is now in it's seventh consecutive year here at Westborough High School. We sat down together at the beginning of the year and devised a set of goals which we wanted to obtain by the end of the school year. We can happily say that we met each and every goal with flying color. One goal of the year was to continue to maintain a bridge between the students and the faculty here at the high school. This year that bond was clearly seen through the support the students gave to the teachers during their "time of need". In addition, we created a Freshmen/New Student Buddy program which made the incoming freshmen and new students feel more welcome in their new home. Hopefully, in years to come the Peer Leader group will continue to grow and churn out new ideas.

The Cultural Council is a group which is dedicated to spreading awareness throughout Westborough High. As a society we aren't educated enough about other peoples cultures and we form biases about groups of people. As a member of Cultural Council, it is our job to try and break down the cultural barriers that are up in the High School. Next year we are hoping to have a week long cultural celebration week where each day a new culture will be exposed for all to experience.

THOSE SMARTSY PEOPLE...

Membership in the Westborough Chapter of the National Honor Society is certainly an honor, but it is also a responsibility. To have a 3.8 weighted grade point average, to exhibit outstanding leadership and commitment, to scrupulously serve one's community, to be a person of integrity-these are qualities that NHS recognizes. That is not to say that they are specific only to NHS members. There are so many students at WHS who did not meet the GPA qualification of NHS, or who were not accepted, who are no doubt persons of leadership, scholarship, service, and character. Hopefully, with or without the recognition of NHS they will continue to be such persons. The responsibility of the members of NHS is to be visibly accountable to these high standards for which they have been recognized. In this capacity they are charged with being leaders of example to the school, yet this title does not make them leaders. Members of NHS were leaders long before being selected. The title of NHS is only a title-it means nothing by itself. NHS has a long-standing tradition of being dedicated to helping the community. So far this year NHS has tutored dozens of Westborough students, collected over one ton of food for local food pantries, raised $2,600 for the American Cancer Society, sponsored a child named Gustavo who lives in Colombia, and will provide hundreds of dollars in scholarships for this year's senior class. Of course, as one dissident NHS member pointed out, the world's problems will not be solved with school lunch candy sales-but hey, we'll take it one step at a time.

S.M.A.R.T

"Students Making Awareness A Reality Together"

S.M.A.R.T. began last spring as a club with the main goal of spreading awareness in order to prevent discrimination of all kinds. In the past year, we have performed activities to make members of the Westborough community more mindful of discriminatory acts (hate crimes) and how to prevent them. We hope to eventuallly alleviate hatred in Westborough schools to ensure that Students feel safe sharing thier differences with one another.

Statistical Survey

Thanks to the participation and support of the Faculty and Administration, the WHS Statistical Survey Group was able to begin operation this year. Survey Group was founded on the idea that if the school's administrators had actual data measuring student opinion trends then that would be better able to make informed decisions. Survey Group utilizes written surveys to accomplish this. We arestudent run, but all our surveys are approved by our supervisor Mr. Hebert along with Mr. Pierce, as a way to ensure that all our data is unbiased and fair. Survey Group is new at WHS, but hopefully its usefulness will make it a long standing institution within out school..

"Actively Promoting People's Love for Education"

A.P.P.L.E is a very new group which has been created to allow students to explore the world of teaching in any form they wish. We been determined to give students who are interested in this field the ability to intern at schools,find information on scholarships, and explore the world of teaching with help from their peers and our advisor, Ms. Roney. We hope this groupwill grow over the years and will be helpful to the future teachers in our school.

Every Friday we at the Lobby Observer publish the weekly newspaper for students, faculty, and administrators. We work hard all week to get a paper out, and usually end up stapling those papers about two minutes before first lunch starts. This year at the Lobby O we have been fortunate enough to have a great staff to work on the paper. With construction, classes in the gym, and the opening of the new addition, we have been flooded with great stories for the year. As a class it is our goal to be the voice of the students here at WHS and also a bridge between students, faculty, and administrators. With the addition of pictures in the paper, and editorials , we feel that the paper is heading in the right direction for future years of Lobby Observer.

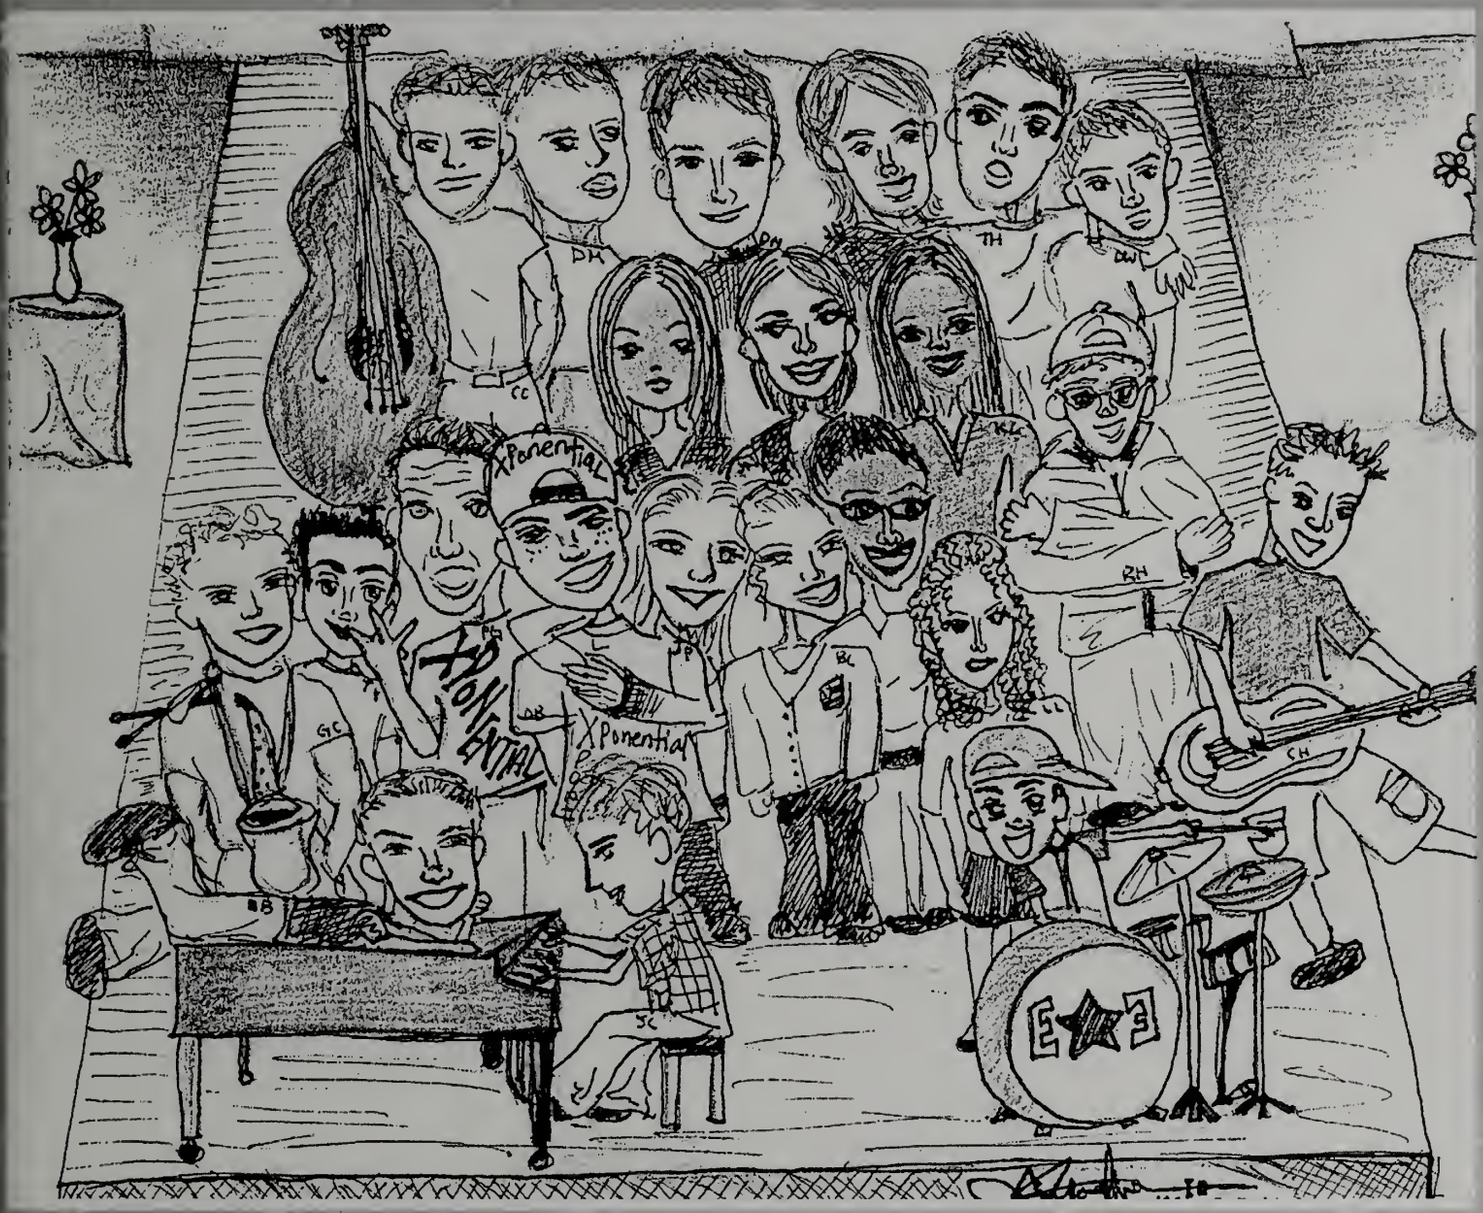
Ned's Coffeehouse



Ned's Coffeehouse is more fabulous and popular every year. We have been lucky; our amazing performers continue to bring in growing audiences. All of the money that is earned from Ned's Coffeehouse goes towards the schools Literary Magazine. Maybe, more importantly, we provide a chance for students to get up and show their "stuff."

We are again very grateful for the success of this school-wide event. A gracious 'Thanks" to all the performers, members of the Literary Magazine, and everyone that has helped run the event.

French Club

French Club is very food-focused this year. We try to reflect French culture in everything we do: whether it be through movies or food. The year started off with a series of bake sales that made hundreds of dollars for French Club. Unfortunately, because of the teachers' contract dispute, French Club was put on hold for a few months. But the forever enduring French Club returned triumphently. We are planning a trip to Boston on a Friday afternoon when we will go first to the MFA and then afterwards, a French cafe. It's going to be great! Everyone's welcome, even if you don't speak French.

Thanks a lot to Ms. Olsen, Nadine Noreldin (my co-president), Mike Huddy, Jung-Ha Nam, and Heidi Johnson.

THAT'S DEBATABLE!

Speech and Debate had a very successful year! It has been a pleasure to be a part of such a wonderful group of motivated students. This year consisted of both organized debates and spontaneous ones. We did not go to any competitions like we did last year because we wanted to focus more on being a school club. We owe a lot to Ms. Higgiston, our coach and advisor. She has allowed us to exercise our creativity and has always been a strong voice without limiting us. I am very proud of all the accomplishments we have made throughout the last two years of the Speech and Debate Club. I truly am sad to be leaving it this year, but I feel that I leave it in good hands. Best wishes to all!

If I occasionally scream in yearbook and whisper things under my breath, it is only because the energy level is, sometimes, too much for me. Yearbook has always been good for me. It keeps me young and I'll miss it terribly next year. I'll probably watch old Jane Powell movies. You know, "Hey kids, let's find a barn and put on a play."

So to my editors and staff members thanks for the incredible youth and enthusiasiam, the hard work, the lost layouts and the last minute photos, this is just to say thanks and goodbye.

Rachel,
I hope you never lose your sense of wonder,
You get your fill to eat but always keep that hunger.
May you never take one single breath for granted,
And God forbid love ever leaves you empty-handed.
I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean.
Whenever one door closes, I hope one more opens.
Promise me that you'll give faith a fighting chance.

And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance
I hope you dance.

* When Allison was born, we couldn't wait to see,
What our second little daughter would turn out to be.
* From very early on, there was certainly no doubt;
That our little outdoor girl, craved to run about.
* In basketball and soccer, other players she would knock;
So it was no wonder when she was nicknamed, Roadblock.
* After setting a pick or defending like a bear,
Allison Louise would pause to check the condition of her hair.
* On through the years our outdoor girl grew and grew;
We added dancing, skating, track, and of course field hockey too.
* It was in the last of these sports that Allison found her home;
And from Westborough to Maryland to Florida did we roam.
* This last year has been most exciting , including recovering form the knee;
Never did we expect that in the state finals we would be.
* This success has brought the Rangers much local fame;
But the sweetest of the victories was beating Nore Dame.
* Now we are ready to send Ally off to the university;
For a good education and, of course, more field hockey.
* We could not be more proud of Allison, (and for that matter, her sister too).
And we hope that for our outdoor girl, all her wishes will come true.

Congratualtions Allison, we love you.

Angela Prout and Jess Parsons

Wow, I can't believe this is it. I can remember just last year as one of the few juniors on yearbook, smiling and nodding as if I knew what all this crazy yearbook stuff meant. This year as editor has been an incredible experience. I can honestly say with pride that our yearbook is one of the best I've seen come out of WHS. Our staff and editors this year were great and I want to personally thank each one of you for your contributions. Mr. Kaplan your help and guidance will forever be appreciated, as well as the oppurtunity to be an editor, it meant more to me than you know. Jess Parsons you're honestly one of the best people I know, never change. To the Class of 2002 good luck, and may all your hopes and dreams come true. Remember to treasure your senior yearbook always, never forgot our memories!

Peace,
Angela

General Editors

Where do I start? The last two years of yearbook have taken me on a stressfull but very rewarding ride. I can't believe it's over. So much went into this book; thanks to the staff and the editors for working hard, and everyone else who helped make it happen. All the stress of late nights, deadlines, lost pictures and missing copies and zip disks have finally paid off. I'm really proud of the finished product and I hope everyone enjoys it. Good luck to next year's staff; hopefully your advisor can keep his cool through all the chaos as well as Kap did. Mr. Kaplan, thankyou for giving me this opportunity and for all the caring advice. Happy Retirement! To Angela, my partner in crime, more than a great co-editor. Stay in touch and don't ever forget to smile. Good luck to the Class of '02- this one's for you guys.

Love,
Jess

The Picture People

Amanda Polkras, Pat Gillooly, Lucia Scott

Well, it's been a long year. Longer than expected since I became photo editor, but it's been fun. I want to thank Lucia and Amanda for finishing up tasks that "one of us" started. Thanks to Angela and Jess for kicking my butt when stuff needed to be done, and thanks to everyonewho put together this awesome yearbook. I'm sorry to anyone who couldn't find pictures, I swear they're not at home in my private collection of yearbook pictures.

-PGoo

Photo Editors

Only two years of yearbook have taught me more than I ever would have imagined. Yearbook has granted an unathletic girl like myself the opportunity to feel like part of a team. Being a photo editor my senior year has been an amazing oppurtunity. Despite the compromised "deadlines", lost film, pictures (And even cameras) Pat, Amanda and I were still able to keep our sanity through the mayhem. To my fellow photo editors, my gratitude is unmeasurable. Mr. Kaplan, your understanding my complexity will never be forgotten. Making this book has been amazing. A special thanks to the irreplaceable editors and staff. Good luck 2002, I hope you enjoy our work.

-LScoo

First and foremost I need to thank Mr. Kaplan; you are a great person. I learned so much from you in the three years that I have been on the yearbook staff. Thanks for trusting me enough to be a photo editor. Thanks to my co-editors: Pat and Lucia for always being there when I needed help. And lastly I'd like to thank Jess and Angela for all your hard work and dedication that got the job done. Thanks for staying late and coming in early and busting your butts in order for the book to be completed. Good luck calls of 2002!

-Amanda

Gettin' Down to Business

It all began for us the day that Mr. Kaplan told us we were Business Editors. As if the spring of our junior year wasn't busy enough, we immediately began planning for the Holiday Ball. At the beginning of the year, we started right in on yearbook sales and senior sweatshirt sales. Only then did we realize what it meant to be business editors. Yearbook is not really a class. Sixth period for us became more like running a small business: we had finances, publicity, long hours, and STRESS!

Planning the Holiday Ball was a great experience-exploring limitless themes, and locations, flipping through all those dance/decor catalogues. Our vision: a sparkling night in silver and blue (no doubt the custodians are still trying to sweep up remnants of silver glitter). The result:: the most beautiful dance WHS has seen in years, and a great time had by all. Phew.

There were definitely some tedious times: writing letters and addressing, licking, and stamping envelopes. Yet once we discovered that we could employ underclassmen, progress started picking up-great tip for next years editors...remember, this is business. AND STAY ORGANIZED! Rm. 119 is a vacuum.

It's been fun. Mr. Kaplan-thank you for your inspiration and endless understanding, not to mention keeping us relaxed when things spontaneously disappeared. It has been splendid making this book of memories a reality for everyone.

-Lisa Lareau and Lin Lin Gao

The Computer Geek

I never thought this year would be so crazy, and the yearbook production was no exception. From the start, I knew training a completely Mac-illiterate staff to produce an entire yearbook on a few iMacs and rusty G3's would be a challenge, but it proved to be rewarding. I'll never forget the many questions: "How do I turn it on?" "Where is that 'box thing' that says the picas?" "What computer am I on?" "How do I number things?" and the most frequently asked, "is Snood on this computer too?" As a staff, we have survived a late start, the move from 301, the lost layouts and hidden fonts, the threats of a fall book, frustrations with grids and contagious Snood addictions.

I thank the staff for dealing with my impatience and computer lingo. Thanks Ricey, I don't know what I would have done without you always by my side. Thanks Mr. Kaplan, your pushing me to succeed and faith in my abilities and potential kept me functional. Your affect on me the last two years is bigger than you know. Thanks Ang and Jess for giving me free reign over the many floating discs and drives; your trust in me gave me the room I needed to maintain my sanity. I've never seen two people more dedicated and hardworking; you guys amaze me. Here's your book 2002, enjoy it and good luck!

Runnin' the Show

Mr. Kaplan your kindness will forever be remembered by us all. You are a terrific advisor and your dedication is an inspiration to each of us. Thank you for all the help and advice, we will miss you incredibly. Good luck in the future!

Love,
your 2002 Yearbook Staff

Much Love to...

All of the amazing editors who represented the "glue to this ensemble" we have so appropriately dubbed "yearbook".

-Dani we'd be lost without your extensive computer skills

- Lisa Lareau and Lin Lin Gao for making the H.B. a great success!

-Amanda Pokras, Pat Gillooly, and Lucia Scott for devoting their afternoons to snapping shots of the endless clubs and organizations at WHS

Every student and faculty member who donated the pictures upon pictures to put this all together.

Lin Lin Gao for the gorgeous cover.

Mrs. Martin and Mr. Masciarelli for the computer support.

Sarah Vanacore and Jen Johnson- Sorry you inadvertently got left off the cartoon!

The entire yearbook staff for working hard when we needed you most and putting up with all the chaos.

Our school librarians for trying to help us keep track of our cameras!

The janitorial staff for allowing us access to the building to make deadlines at all crazy hours of the night, and yes even Saturdays.

The class of 2002 for the unforgettable memories that made this book what it is. Good luck to you all!

And to anyone who we failed to mention our gratitude is unmeasurable.

Love,
Angela and Jess
